Women to Bowl as Birthday Event: Discuss Big Bout as Dempsey Nears Home

TO LEAD TEAMS TONIGHT IN CITY TITLE TOURNEY

DILLIE WILLIAMS and Bronson Quaites, rated among the best woman bowlers of the city, intend to demonstrate to spectators at tonight's session of the Washington Ladies' Duckpin Association championship tournament some of the finer points of duckpin shooting. These stellar pin topplers, celebrating birthday anniversaries today, will lead, respectively, Billie's Team and the Hummers, the only quints sched-uled to take the Grand Central drives during the session, and they have planned to make their joint "party" a sparkling success.

Miss Williams' team will be the same that played through the lengthy campaign of the Washington Ladies' League. Assisting the captain will be Lilian Wenz, Pauline Thomas, Effie Pope and May Noel. Miss Quaites has corralled a notable lot of duckpin shooters for the Hummers. With her will be Belle Lindquist. Beatrice Ridgely, Gertrude Laubach and Mary

NEW YORK, May 18.—The New York state boxing commission has adopted a resolution obviously directed at Johnny Kilbane, feather-weight champion, calling attention to the New York law under which his inactivity can be made the basis for declaring him to have relinquished the championship as far as this state is concerned.

Naval Academy teams will figure in five competitions Saturday, as quisned the championship as far as this state is concerned.

The commissioner, however, decided to ignore the challenge of Johnny Dundee, who posted forfeit February 23, in demanding a match with Kilbane. No explanation of this phase of the action was offered.

LONDOS-BROCKMAN BOUT HEADS WRESTLING CARD

A three-match wrestling program, headed by a bout between Jim Londos and Jan Brockman, heavyweights, will be offered tonight at the Capitol Theater. The first pre-liminary, starting at 8:30, will be between Joe Turner and Jack Bartel. In another Pinky Gardner will be opposed by Zeke Smith. All of the preliminary contestants are middleweights.

WILLS IS MOST LIKELY OPPONENT OF CHAMPION

TEW YORK, May 18 .- Jack Dempsey and his manager, Jack Kearns, will return to the United States tomorrow on the Aquitania, after a brief trip to Paris, London and Berlin.

While abroad the champion signed an agreement for a return match with Georges Carpentier some time within the next year. Boxing experts profess little faith in the pulling power of the Carpentier match.

Leonard-Tendler Go Fades

Rickard, in discussing his summer boxing plant, stated that he had virtually given up hopes of matching Benny Leonard and Lew Tendler in a lightweight championship bout as a July fistic attraction.

"I have Leonard's consent to arrange a bout with Tendler at 125 pounds and have offered the latter $75,000 for his share, without success," said Rickard. "The champion's share would be equally large, and I cannot afford to go higher, much as the followers of boxing desire the match. No boxers in the history of the ring, with the exception of Dempsey, Carpentier and Willard, have received in excess of these figures."

Chances, however, are that neither at Yale nor at Harvard would any action be taken that might substantiate the assertion of the Yale senior that it has "been sufficiently proved to me that some men have been allowed to make some such sacrifice," i.e., giving ten years of their lives to defeat Harvard on the Thames river.

Speedy Rush, Princeton coach in 1915-1916, proved that he knew more of the technical side of foot ball than any man in the country. He came from the University School at Cleveland. And the man who conducted the Tigers to their first basket ball championship this year was Hill Zahn, formerly coach at the Northeast High School, Philadelphia. Zahn was never rated as a great basket ball player. And Zupkke of Illinois was never even a varsity foot ball man at Wisconsin. The late
